

Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University

Global Leaders Career Course

Special Lecture Series III

with Global Leaders

Date and Time: January 19th (Wed) 15:00~18:00

Venue: Graduate School of International Development(GSID), Auditorium (8F), Higashiyama campus

 This lecture will be offered by combination of face-to-face and online.

講師：出石 桂子 氏

元国連世界食糧計画(WFP)キルギス共和国事務所副代表

Lecturer: Ms. Keiko Izushi

Former Deputy Country Director, WFP (World Food Programme) Kyrgyz Republic

Former Head of Conference Services Unit, WFP Executive Board Secretariat

Title: “Ain't No Mountain High Enough - WFP Experience”

Ms. Keiko Izushi is a Japanese national, and holds an MBA(Cardiff Business School, UK)/MA in Economics (Universidad de las Americas, Mexico)

She is an International Best-selling Author of the recently published book (2020), "What Grandma Taught Me: A Worldwide Tribute to Grandmothers and Their Legacies"

= Her profile =

Deputy Country Director, WFP Kyrgyz Republic (2016-2020)

Head of Donor Relations, Reports and Communications, WFP Afghanistan (2013-2015)

Head, Conference Services Unit, WFP Executive Board Secretariat (2013-2018)

Policy Advisor, WFP Hqs (2017-2018)

Programme Advisor, WFP Indonesia (2012-2017)

Liaison Officer, WFP Japan Office (1998-2012)

Resources Mobilization Officer, WFP Hqs (1995-1998)

Resources Mobilization Officer, FAO Hqs (JPO, 1993-1995)

- Language: English
- Open for all students
- Contact and registration: yamamori@gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp