

Program for Leading Graduate Schools, Nagoya University

Women Leaders Program to Promote

Well-being in Asia

Special Lecture Series III on Global Leaders

Date and Time: December 5th (Wed) 15:00~18:00

Venue: Graduate School of International Development (GSID), Multi-purpose Auditorium (8F), Higashiyama Campus

講師：勝部まゆみ 氏

公益財団法人ジョイセフ
業務執行理事・事務局長

Lecturer: Ms. Mayumi Katsube

Board Director/Executive Director

Japanese Organization for International Cooperation in Family Planning (JOICFP)

Title: Working with NGO for protecting health and life of women

After obtaining MA in Social and Economic Development from the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs of the University of Pittsburgh, started her career in the field operations of the international cooperation as a Junior Professional Officer (JPO) of the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) in The Gambia (1984 – 1986), West Africa. Joined JOICFP for a short period, then she left for rural Ethiopia to work as a project coordinator of the rehabilitation and reconstruction project of the Japan Red Cross (1988-1991). She has been working with JOICFP since 1991 and involved in the various reproductive health (RH) projects in Africa and Asia regions supported IPPF and UNFPA, also served as team leader of JICA projects, e.g. a RH project in Vietnam for 5 and half years, an adolescent RH project in Nicaragua for 4 years, involved in ODA projects in Ghana and Tanzania, coaching younger staffs in project management. She was appointed as Executive Director in 2016, and holds the post of Board Director since 2017, supervising the overall JOICFP operations.

- Language: English
- Open for all students
- Contact and registration: koyabu@gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp by Monday, December 3, 2018