A Special Open Lecture for Women Leaders Program to Promote Well-Being in Asia

Global Leader IV

Date: June 15, 2016 (Wed)
15:00～18:00

Venue: Coference Room 1

1F Basic Medical Research Building,
Tsurumai Campus, Nagoya University

Language: English

Human security work as a nursing profession

Dr. Nahoko HARADA

Junior Associate Professor
Nursing Science of Community Health Care System,
Department of Nursing, School of Health Sciences,
Tohoku University

You will learn a lot about realities from Dr. Harada's precious experiences of international humanitarian activities.

This lecture is also open to all students who are not enrolled in Well-Being Program.

Prease contact to: Office of Well-Being (Tsurumai)
coemed@med.nagoya-u.ac.jp

Scenario – The Bus Service

Around 75 passengers including children and elderly people are waiting at a bus stand. They are waiting to take the bus to Tentaka, which is 8 hours away. The bus to Tentaka only comes once every week.

The bus arrives 3 hours late, forcing the passengers to wait in the sun. When it arrives the passengers surge on to the bus and their luggage is loaded on top and inside the bus. As the bus has seating capacity for 40 it is very over-crowed. A woman with 4 young children talks quietly to the bus conductor to see what she can do to get a seat.

But the bus does not depart. The bus conductor tells the passengers that it will leave within 10 minutes, but the bus remains at the bus stand for another 2 hours, while more cargo is loaded on the bus. Eventually the bus starts its journey, but some passengers begin to suffocate in the overcrowded hot bus, and everyone begins to panic.

One of the passengers, an old man shouts at the bus conductor and threatens to hit him. The bus conductor shouts back at him and stops the bus.

Questions for discussion:

1. What do you think happened next?

2. Why do you think this situation occurred?

3. How will you approach to this situation to handle?

This scenario was developed by: Goldan Gomara (from World Vision in Sri Lanka) for HAP. For more information see www.hapinternational.org

Nahoko Harada 2016
nahokonobuta@gmail.com