

Program for Leading Graduate Schools, Nagoya University

Women Leaders Program to Promote

Well-being in Asia

Special Lecture Series III on Global Leaders

Date and Time: January 9th (Wed) 15:00~18:00

Venue: Graduate School of International Development (GSID), Meeting Room No.1 (8F), Higashiyama Campus

講師：内海 悠二

准教授, 名古屋大学大学院国際開発研究科

Lecturer: Yuji Utsumi

Associate Professor

Graduate School of International Development

Title: “Working at the UN Field Office: UNESCO Activities and Career Planning”

During Ph.D. Program at Graduate School of Asia Pacific Studies at Waseda University, he has experienced full-time internship at the ministry of foreign affairs in Tokyo, exchange program at the University of California at Berkeley, internship at Statistics Directorate of OECD Headquarters, and UNESCO Regional Office in Bangkok. He further continued to work at the several field offices in UNESCO and UNICEF for 7 years in total. The working experiences include Assistant Programme Specialist and Programme Coordinator at UNESCO Kabul Office for around 4 years, Education Statistics Expert at UNESCO Amman Office for 1 year, and Education Consultant (MoE Technical Advisor on EMIS/Education Statistics) at UNICEF Timor-Leste Office for 2 and half years. He became associate professor at Graduate School of International Development at Nagoya University and is teaching on international educational development planning and assessment since April 2018.

- Language: English
- Open for all students
- Contact and registration: koyabu@gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp by Friday, January 4, 2019